

LORI GEISINGER

Senior Counsel
lgeisinger@outsidegc.com

Lori is an experienced business immigration attorney who leads our immigration practice team at Outside GC. She routinely advises and educates our professional and business clients of all sizes about immigration strategies and internal policies for their foreign national employees. She assists our clients and their foreign national employees in obtaining and extending temporary nonimmigrant visas and status (including B-1, E-1/E-2, E-3, H-1B, J-1, L-1, O-1, and TN status), immigrant visas and permanent residence status (in the EB-1, EB-2 and EB-3 categories), and U.S. citizenship. She also represents individuals in a variety of family-based immigration matters, including marriage-based permanent residence, and provides advice on immigrant and nonimmigrant visa consular processing. Lori has considerable experience representing growth-stage software and technology companies, biotech/pharma and life sciences companies, global retailers, medical professionals, and overseas entities desiring or having a U.S. presence. Lori's clients at Outside GC include MorphoSys US, Constellation Pharmaceuticals, QuickBase, Lands' End, Samsonite, SafeRide, Sensei Ag and LawnStarter.

Before joining Outside GC in 2012, Lori practiced law at Miller & Caine, LLP in Providence, RI beginning in 2004, where she dedicated her legal practice to the business immigration area. During her tenure at M&C, Lori acted as de-facto in-house immigration counsel to a wide range of business clients, including hospitals and physician networks. In 1999, Lori joined Finnegan, Hickey, Dinsmoor & Johnson, P.C., a boutique commercial law firm in Boston, as a corporate attorney. At FHD&J, Lori focused her practice in the areas of venture capital financing, general business counseling, commercial contracts, SEC compliance filings and copyright and trademark transactions.
