

ARIANA SARABIA

Partner
asarabia@outsidegc.com

Ariana Sarabia is an experienced in-house executive and general counsel with a background in engineering and over 30 years of experience advising private sector industries, including government contracting, defense, avionics, aerospace, renewable energy, energy transition, oil and gas, construction, forest products, semiconductor manufacturing, engineering services, and chemical processing. Ariana's practice focuses on issues relating to corporate governance, regulatory compliance, and risk management, and she is recognized for her ability to deliver innovative, cost-effective solutions that drive strategic initiatives, while fortifying organizational integrity.

Her specific areas of focus include:

- Foreign Trade
- Environmental, Health, Safety & Sustainability
- Government Contracts
- Commercial Contracts
- Manufacturing Process & Industrial Products
- Supply Chain Risk Management
- Compliance and Regulatory
- Enterprise Risk Management
- Dispute Resolution & Litigation Management
- Anti-Bribery/Anti-Corruption (ABAC)
- Construction
- Government Reporting
- Internal Audits

Prior to joining OGC, Ariana founded and served as General Counsel to Aera Federal, a subsidiary

EDUCATION

J.D., Harvard Law School
B.S and M.S., Materials Science and Engineering,
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

SECTORS AND SERVICES

Government Contracting
Commercial Transactions and Contracts
Regulatory Compliance and Training
Managing Outside Counsel and Litigation

CREDENTIALS

Bar Admissions
California

Professional Membership & Affiliations
SCCE Certified Compliance and Ethics
Professional

of Aera Energy LLC, where she built and led the company's legal function, including all matters relating to corporate governance, compliance, government contracts and employees. Previously, Ariana served as Director of Ethics and Business Conduct at RTX Corporation (formerly Raytheon Missile Systems), a 16,000-employee organization.

Ariana graduated from Harvard Law School, and earned both an M.S. and B.S. in Materials Science and Engineering from Massachusetts Institution of Technology.

She resides in Murrieta, California with her five terriers, and is a member of both the MIT Club of San Diego and the Harvard Club of San Diego.